What is happening around Alexandra Primary School?

...lots!

- We have been informed that students will not return to face to face learning this term. This makes us really excited about holidays and extremely hopeful that we will be back face to face next term!
- Inside our new building is a hive of activity! The cabinetry and plaster is going in and the space looks amazing! I can't wait to fit out the new library!
- Mrs McInnes begins her family leave position today. We wish Kristen, Mark and Heath the very best for their new adventure. We are looking forward to meeting Mini McInnes soon!
- Ms Holohan will be joining our team and teaching 5/6B. Meg has completed 2 teaching pracs with us and is familiar with many of the students. We are sure that she will be a great fit for our school.
- Our 2021 enrolments are coming in. We are very excited to be engaging with new families and look forward to welcoming them to our learning community!

Take care,

Vicky

Spoonville!

Got an old wooden spoon around the place? All you need are textas and a wooden spoon and you can join in the fun. We would love for you to drop your Spoonville characters off to us so we can add them to the art installation that is planned in Alexandra! Google 'Spoonville' for inspiration. Please tie or write you're your name on the end of the spoon, there are rewards involved!

Autumn

Looks like leaves changing colours.

Sounds like crunching leaves.

Feels like warm sometimes at the start of Summer

But when it is cold sometimes at the end of Autumn.

Smells like vegetables.

Tastes like apples.

Dogs

Eyes as black as a blackout.

Nose as wet as a raindrop.

Fur as cosy as a bed.

Tail as waggy as the wind.

Ears as floppy as a puppet.

Dog as sweet as chocolate.

Dog's journey home

My hair stood on end, a shiver raced down my spine and a lump came to my throat. It was a ... DOG. It wasn't as scary once I knew it was a dog I named him Jeff.

Jeff and I went on a walk then... we got sucked into a portal to "Conzatio Land" in Conzatio it was 3:00 pm sharp!

Jeff ate my donut then I contemplated life. At 4 we got more food, we had a road trip and found a portal we obviously went in... and got back home.

And my wish came true. I got a free donut.
